The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 31, to Saturday November 4, 1775.

St. James's, November 4.

THE following Addreſs of the Freeholders of the Shire of Argyll has been preſented to His Majeſty by Colonel Livingſton, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders of the Shire of Argyll.

WE, whoſe Predeceſſors ſuffered early and greatly in the Cauſe of Liberty, and who are perſuaded it is our greateſt Intereſt, as well as Honour and Duty, on every proper Occaſion to exert ourſelves in its Defence, judge it now incumbent upon us to expreſs our Senſe of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and conſtitutional Government; and at the ſame Time to declare our Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion of our deluded Fellow-Subjects in America, which, we apprehend, is encouraged and fomented by ſeveral diſcontented and turbulent Perſons at Home.

Permit us, therefore, to expreſs our earneſt Wiſhes, that the Meaſures adopted by the Wiſdom of the Nation, may be vigorouſly proſecuted by your Majeſty, till Faction and Rebellion are brought to yield due Obedience to the Decrees of the Legiſlature, without which, our invaluable Government can never be ſaid to ſubſiſt; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, in Support of ſuch Meaſures, we are ready to riſk our Lives and Fortunes.

Signed in Name, Preſence, and by Appointment of the Meeting,

Robert Campbell, P.

Inveraray, October 17, 1775.

The following Addreſs of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply, of the County of Ayr, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Adam Ferguſſon, Bart. their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Ayr.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply, of the County of Ayr, called together by public Adververtiſement, think ourſelves bound in Duty, in the preſent Situation of public Affairs, moſt humbly to approach your Majeſty with this our unanimous Addreſs, and to expreſs our Gratitude for thoſe manifold Bleſſings which we enjoy in common with all our Fellow-Subjects, under your mild, juſt, and legal Government.

While we thankfully acknowledge theſe Bleſſings, we obſerve, with the moſt ſincere Regret, that the Spirit of Diſaffection which has for ſome Time paſt unhappily prevailed in ſeveral of your Majeſty's Colonies in America, has now broke out into a daring and open Rebellion; a Rebellion the more unjuſtifiable, that your Majeſty's Declarations from the Throne, and the Reſolutions of Parliament, muſt have convinced every impartial Man, that ſo far from a Wiſh being entertained to oppreſs your Subjects in America, they might with Certainty have depended upon every Indulgence, if applied for in a proper Manner, conſiſtent with the Dignity and juſt Authority of the Sovereign and Legiſlature of both Countries to beſtow.

At the ſame Time that we lament that Infatuation which has led thoſe deluded Men to act in a Manner ſo ſubverſive of the Peace and Quiet of this great Empire, and ſo ruinous to themſelves, we have ſuch Confidence in your Majeſty as not to doubt that You will take the moſt effectual Meaſures to ſupport and maintain the conſtitutional Rights of Great Britain.

In expreſſing our Hopes of ſeeing the moſt efficacious Means purſued for reſtoring good Order and a due Submiſſion to Government, we have no Object in View but the common Happineſs and Proſperity of the whole State. As we are certain from your Majeſty's known Clemency, that the Puniſhment of your rebellious Subjects will not be carried farther than the Prevention of ſuch Evils for the future, and the neceſſary Maintenance of good Government may require; ſo we hope from your Majeſty's Wiſdom and that of your Parliament, that, after Peace and good Order ſhall be re-eſtabliſhed, thoſe Defects in the Conſtitution of the Colonies, which have in Part been the Occaſion of theſe unhappy Diſorders, may be corrected, and ſuch a Plan of Government with Regard to them adopted, as may be effectual to inſure their Obedience in Time to come.

In this Hope we would gladly flatter ourſelves, that even thoſe Events which appear moſt adverſe to the Proſperity of this great State, may, by being the Means of eſtabliſhing it upon a more ſolid Foundation, tend in the final Reſult to render it more permament and ſecure.

In the mean Time, Sire, a vigorous Exertion of the Power and Authority of Great Britain appears clearly to us to be the only Means by which theſe important Ends can be attained: We truſt your Majeſty will exert it, and, in ſo doing, your Majeſty may be aſſured of our moſt hearty Support.

Ayr, October 11, 1775.

Signed by Order, and in Preſence of the Meeting,

EGLINTOUNE, Præſes.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Ayr, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Sir George Macartney, Knight of the Bath, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town-Council of your ancient Royal Burgh of Ayr, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave unanimouſly to expreſs our Sentiments of Gratitude for the many Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your mild Government, ever ſince your happy Acceſſion to the Throne.

Being thus ſenſible of our own Happineſs, it is with Horror and Deteſtation that we behold the Standard of Rebellion erected in ſo many of your American Provinces, and an unnatural War, carried on by your Subjects there, againſt their lawful Sovereign and Mother-Country, after the greateſt Marks of Lenity and Condeſcenſion have been ſhown to them by your Majeſty and the Parliament of Great Britain.

We ſincerely lament the preſent Situation of theſe unhappy and deluded People, who, inſtead of enjoying Liberty, Law, Juſtice, and Property, as formerly, are now governed by the Mob and Rabble, headed by mad Enthuſiaſts and deſperate Republicans.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we, and the Inhabitants of this Burgh, whom we repreſent, are ready to ſupport, with our Lives and Fortunes, all ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be judged neceſſary by your Majeſty and Parliament, to put a ſpeedy End to this unnatural Rebellion, and to diſappoint the ſeditious Practices of a diſcontented Faction at home, who appear to us to have greatly encouraged and inſtigated the Rebellion of the Americans.

That Almighty God may bleſs your Majeſty's Councils, give Succeſs to your Arms; that a ſpeedy Peace and and Reconciliation may take Place among all your Subjects, and the further Effuſion of human Blood be prevented: That you may have a long and proſperous Reign over a free and happy People, is our ſincere Prayer.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Ayr, in Common Council aſſembled, this Nineteenth Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five.

James Hutchiſon, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the antient Borough of Chriſtchurch in the County of Southampton has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Honourable Thomas Villiers Hyde, and James Harris, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the antient Borough of Chriſtchurch in the County of Southampton.

SIRE!

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of your antient Borough of Chriſtchurch, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, with every Sentiment of Affection, Zeal, and Gratitude.

It is with the deepeſt Concern that we ſee a deſperate Attempt made to reject the Sovereignty of this Country by thoſe, who owe the very Power of reſiſting it to it's long, it's expenſive, and it's parental Protection.

We are daily taught the Difference between Freedom and Deſpotiſm, and we are taught it in the ſureſt Way, not by Words, but by Deeds.

Under the mild and conſtitutional Government of your Majeſty, we in this Iſland feel both our Perſons and our Properties ſecured; nay even thoſe among us who affect to entertain a different Opinion, and who ſometimes perhaps differ, not in a Manner the moſt reſpectful, are permitted to do it with Impunity, and ſhew by that Impunity their Charge of Deſpotiſm to be groundleſs.

But when we look to the real Regions of Deſpotiſm, (be they in the Eaſt or elſewhere) we find no ſuch Equity, no ſuch Tolerance; the minuteſt Difference in Sentiment is ſure to expoſe the unhappy Diſſentient, however innocent, however conſcientious, to infamous Injuſtice and inſolent Cruelty.

When we reflect on theſe Events, we cannot but be ſenſible, that we have no other Protection to ſhield us from Anarchy and Oppreſſion, and to preſerve our excellent Conſtitution unbroken, whole and intire, than the Wiſdom and Firmneſs of your Majeſty's Counſels, ſupported and enforced by the Efforts of your Parliament.

We humbly beg your Majeſty's Permiſſion to lay theſe our Sentiments at your Feet; and while we aſſure your Majeſty of our firm and unfeigned Attachment, to add our fervent Prayers for our deluded Fellow-Subjects, that they may become ſenſible of their Error; that they may depart from their Hoſtilities, and return to a Senſe of that Duty which they owe to the Britiſh Legiſlature, and to the beſt of Princes.

Given under our Common Seal, at a full Aſſembly, in our Town-Hall, this Twenty-fourth Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five.

The following Addreſs of the Officers of the Northamptonſhire Militia, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Rochford, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Officers of the Northamptonſhire Militia.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Officers of the Militia now aſſembled for the County of Northampton, humbly beg Leave to give your Majeſty this Aſſurance of our Readineſs to defend your Royal Perſon againſt all foreign and domeſtic Enemies, and to ſupport the legal Authority of the Crown in preſerving entire the matchleſs Fabrick of the Britiſh Conſtitution.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leeds in the County of York, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Edwin Laſcelles, Eſq; One of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of York, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leeds in the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave (as we think it our indiſpenſible Duty at this Time) to approach the Throne, and with the utmoſt Zeal and Sincerity to declare our grateful and affectionate Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family.

Convinced of your Majeſty's great Regard for the glorious Conſtitution of this Country, and the real Happineſs of all your Subjects, permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall at all Times be ready to join in ſupporting the Rights and Authorities of the Britiſh Legiſlature and the juſt Prerogatives of the Crown.

It is with very great Concern we obſerve that our Fellow-Subjects in America diſclaim all Obedience to the Laws of their Mother Country; but whatever Sorrow or Compaſſion we may feel for thoſe miſguided People, we think it not only our Duty but our Intereſt, to afford every Aſſiſtance in our Power towards reducing them to due Subjection, however diſagreeable the Means neceſſary to be uſed for that Purpoſe may be; and your Majeſty may reſt aſſured that we ſhall at all Times perſevere in ſupporting ſuch Meaſures as may be thought neceſſary for aſcertaining and maintaining the Legiſlative Authority of this Kingdom, and reducing your Majeſty's rebellious Subjects to proper Obedience.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-eighth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Seventy-five.

By the Court,

Thomas Barſtow, jun. Common Clerk.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Freeholders, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Neighbourhood of Leeds in the County of York, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Edwin Laſcelles, Eſq; One of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of York, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Freeholders, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Neighbourhood of Leeds in the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, to teſtify our grateful Acknowledgments for the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, to the Gentleneſs and Mildneſs of which we owe the rapid Increaſe of our Manufactures, giving full Employ to all our Poor even at advanced Wages; and to the Protection therefrom derived, attribute the Extenſion of our Commerce Abroad, and the conſequential flouriſhing Situation of this populous Country.

Silence in us therefore would be criminal, at a Time when Sedition, fomented by the Miſrepreſentations of artful, ill-deſigning Men, working upon the Minds of narrow and ſelf-intereſted People, hath in ſome of your Majeſty's Colonies in North-America erected the Standard of Rebellion, a Rebellion as unnatural as unprovoked; the Abettors whereof, for Want of real Grievances to palliate in any Degree their treaſonable Purpoſes, are obliged to have Recourſe to ſpeculative Opinions, and ideal Doctrines incompatible in Practice with every Form of Government.

Impelled by a grateful and juſt Senſe of the Happineſs we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's Reign, we your Majeſty's

Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, deem it a Duty incumbent upon us as good Citizens thus publickly to declare our utter Abhorrence of the Conduct of thoſe traiterous and rebellious People, who are ſtriking at the Root of American Liberty, which can only be preſerved by due Obedience to the Legiſlative Authority of Great Britain; that we ſenſibly feel the Inſult offered to the ſupreme Authority of theſe Realms; and with the greateſt Sincerity aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Abilities, exert ourſelves in ſupporting the Execution of ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be found neceſſary to bring the Colonies to a due Senſe of their Dependence upon the Mother Country, and a proper Obedience to the Laws of this Kingdom.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Derby, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Wenman Coke, Eſq; One of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Derby.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Derby, truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's wiſe and equitable Adminiſtration, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Profeſſions of the moſt ſincere Gratitude and unalterable Allegiance. Such Profeſſions we look upon as peculiarly neceſſary at this critical Seaſon, when a conſiderable Number of your Majeſty's Subjects in America, enflamed by the Artifices of a diſappointed and deſperate Faction in our own Country, have bid Defiance to the Authority of the Britiſh Legiſlature, and have riſen into actual and avowed Rebellion. Relying entirely upon the Juſtice and Prudence of your Majeſty and your Parliament, we preſume not to preſcribe the Meaſures which may be thought proper for the Suppreſſion of theſe unwarrantable and treaſonable Proceedings. We are convinced, that every Method conſiſtent with the Dignity of Government and the Preſervation of the Conſtitution will be uſed to prevent the Effuſion of Blood, and to reſtore Peace and Unanimity to the Colonies: But if (as we have too much Reaſon to apprehend) theſe deluded Men ſhould ſo far continue to abuſe your Majeſty's Clemency, as to draw down upon themſelves the awful Vengeance of the Parent State, we do in the moſt ſolemn Manner aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall always willingly exert our utmoſt Endeavours to maintain inviolate the Honour of your Crown, and to aſſert the Authority of the Britiſh Parliament in every Part of your Majeſty's Dominions.

That your Majeſty may long reign in the Hearts of a free, happy, and united People, is the earneſt Prayer of,

Your Majeſty's ever faithful Subjects and Servants,

The following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and others of the County of Linlithgow, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir William Auguſtus Cunynghame, Bart. their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the County of Linlithgow.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and others of the County of Linlithgow, moſt humbly beg Leave to lament the unhappy Diſturbances occaſioned by the Rebellion raiſed by ſome of your Majeſty's Subjects in America; to declare our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of theſe and all other Attempts againſt your Government; our entire Confidence in ſuch Meaſures as to your Majeſty's Wiſdom and that of your Parliament ſhall appear moſt prudent to quell the Inſurgents, reſtore Peace to your Dominions, and to maintain the neceſſary Conſtitutional Dependence of all your Colonies on the Mother Country; and that we are ready chearfully to contribute all in our Power to theſe deſirable Ends.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Perſon, Family, and Government; and to offer our Prayers for the long Continuance of your auſpicious Reign, under which, by the Bleſſing of Divine Providence, we enjoy every Advantage derivable from our happy Conſtitution.

In Preſence, and by Appointment of the Meeting,
ROSEBERY.

Linlithgow, October 19, 1775.

The following Addreſs of the Boroughs of Dunfermline, Inverkeithing, and Culroſs, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Lieutenant-Colonel Archibald Campbell, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Boroughs of Dunfermline, Inverkeithing, and Culroſs.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, preſume to approach your Throne with the deepeſt and moſt grateful Senſe of the manifold Bleſſings which, under the Diſpenſation of Divine Providence, we have happily enjoyed during the Courſe of your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.

It is with equal Sorrow and Surprize, that we find ourſelves called upon to expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of thoſe rebellious Violences, into which ſome of your Majeſty's Subjects on the Continent of America, have been unhappily deluded, and, to ſuch a Degree, as to manifeſt a Deſire of ſhaking off all Dependence upon that Legiſlature, which they have ſo often petitioned in Time of Diſtreſs, by which they were ſo frequently, and ſo effectually relieved, and by whoſe Favor, and under whoſe Protection, their Proſperity and Opulence have been carried to ſo great a Height.

It is the ſincere and ardent Wiſh of theſe your ancient and faithful Boroughs, that Peace and good Order in that Part of your Empire may be ſpeedily and happily re-eſtabliſhed by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and by the Succeſs of your Arms in Support of your Crown and Dignity, and the Authority of the Britiſh Legiſlature. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ready, from every Principle of Loyalty and Attachment, to contribute chearfully thereto, by the utmoſt Exertions in our Power.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
We are,
Your Majeſty's
Moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects,
Signed by Order, and in the Name of our reſpective Councils,
John Kirk, Chief Magiſtrate of Dunfermline.
Arch. Campbell, Chief Magiſtrate of Inverkeithing.
James Johnſton, Chief Magiſtrate of Culroſs.
Dunfermline, October, 1775.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of the Borough of Peebles, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir James Cockburn, Bart. Repreſentative in Parliament for Peebles, Lanerk, Linlithgow, and Selkirk, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of the Borough of Peebles, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, and with Hearts full of Gratitude, expreſs the many and great Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's wiſe, mild, and auſpicious Government.

It is with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation we ſee a Rebellion carried on in ſome of your Majeſty's Colonies, inſtigated and promoted by a ſeditious and evil-minded Faction at home.

With the greateſt Reſpect and Fidelity we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will be ready, at all Times, with our Lives and Fortunes, to defend your Majeſty's Perſon and Family; ſupport your Government, and the Legiſlative Authority of theſe Realms, againſt all deluded and ſeditious Subjects, at Home or Abroad.

That a Continuance of the wiſe and prudent Meaſures hitherto adopted, with reſpect to America, may ſoon reduce theſe infatuated People to their Duty: That Sedition may be extirpated theſe Realms; and, that your Majeſty may long reign over a free and united People, are the ſincere Prayers of,

Signed in Preſence, and by Appointment, and the Town's Seal affixed, at Peebles, the twenty-fourth Day of October, 1775. } Will. Ker, Provoſt.

The

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Halifax in the County of York, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Dartmouth, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Halifax in the County of York.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us to expreſs our grateful Senſe of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, and our Deteſtation of the Conduct of your Majeſty's Coloniſts in America, now in open Rebellion againſt your Crown, and the well-founded Laws of this Realm.

The mild and prudent Meaſures purſued by your Majeſty to awake them from their Infatuation to a due Senſe of their Allegiance, would, we hoped, have had the deſired Effect; but, we fear, they have been too much countenanced by ſome of our own Countrymen, whoſe ſeditious Practices we totally diſavow; aſſuring your Majeſty, that we will at all Times exert ourſelves, to the utmoſt of our Power, in Support of your Majeſty, and the Meaſures which the Wiſdom of your Parliament may think expedient for eſtabliſhing the Legiſlative Rights of the Mother Country over all her Colonies.

We think it our Duty to inform your Majeſty, that the Trade of this Town and Neighbourhood (notwithſtanding the Aſſertions of ill-deſigning Men to the contrary) is in a more flouriſhing State than for many Years paſt; and that the People are fully employed in every Branch of the Manufactures.

May the Almighty grant Succeſs to your Majeſty's Endeavours for effecting a ſpeedy Reſtoration of Peace and Tranquility, and may your Reign be very long and glorious over a free and united People.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the County of Linlithgow.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and others of the County of Linlithgow, moſt humbly beg Leave to lament the unhappy Diſturbances occaſioned by the Rebellion raiſed by ſome of your Majeſty's Subjects in America; to declare our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of theſe and all other Attempts againſt your Government; our entire Confidence in ſuch Meaſures as to your Majeſty's Wiſdom and that of your Parliament ſhall appear moſt prudent to quell the Inſurgents, reſtore Peace to your Dominions, and to maintain the neceſſary Conſtitutional Dependence of all your Colonies on the Mother Country; and that we are ready chearfully to contribute all in our Power to theſe deſirable Ends.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Perſon, Family, and Government; and to offer our Prayers for the long Continuance of your auſpicious Reign, under which, by the Bleſſing of Divine Providence, we enjoy every Advantage derivable from our happy Conſtitution.

St. James's, November 1.

THIS Day His Majesty was pleased to invest the Earl of Galloway with the Ensigns of the most antient and most Noble Order of the Thistle.

His Majesty having signed the several Instruments for that Purpose, which were presented to the Sovereign by Robert Quarme, Esq; Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod, (in the Absence of the Secretary) the Earl was then called into the Royal Presence, being preceded by Lord Cathcart and the Earl of Rosebery, two Knights Companions of the Thistle, and supported on each Side by the Earls of Portmore and March, the two senior Knights of the Order; Mr. Brodie, Principal Herald of North Britain (in Place of the Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod) carrying the Sword of State.

At the Entrance a low Reverence was made, a second about the Middle, and, on being advanced up to the Sovereign, a third. The Earl being presented by the two senior Knights, and, kneeling down, the Herald drew the Sword, and (kneeling) delivered it to the Sovereign, who thereupon knighted his Lordship. The Earl having kissed His Majesty's Hand, Green Rod administered the Oath to his Lordship; then Green Rod, having received the Ensigns of the Order, presented the same (kneeling) to the Sovereign upon a Velvet Cushion, who put the Ribbon over the Earl's Left Shoulder; upon which his Lordship had again the Honour of kissing His Majesty's Hand. After this the Earl rose up, and, making a low Reverence, withdrew in the same Manner as he had entered.

The Ceremony was performed, soon after the Levee, in His Majesty's Closet, several of the Great Officers of the State and Court being present.

Whitehall, November 4.

BY Advices lately received from His Majesty's Province of Quebec in North America, it appears, that in the Beginning of September, the Rebels, who had surprised the Post of Ticonderoga, and had before made Incursions into the Province of Quebec, again invaded that Country with a Body of 1000 Men, and proceeded to St. John's upon Richelieu River, but were repulsed and driven back to the Isle aux Noix, by a Party of Indians, who were assembled in the Neighbourhood of St. John's; but the Rebels having made Peace with the Indians, they afterwards penetrated farther into the Country; and, not being opposed by the Inhabitants, were scattered about in Parties throughout the District which lies between Richelieu River and the Road leading from St. John's to La Prairie.

On the 18th of September, a Body of the Rebels, consisting of about 200, was attacked and defeated by a Detachment from the Fort at St. John's of half that Number, consisting of some Troops and Canadian Gentlemen, who served as Volunteers, and who suffered very little Loss.

In the Night of the 25th of September, a Party of the Rebels having crossed over the River St. Lawrence, from Longeuil to Long Point in the Island of Montreal, with an Intention to surprize and plunder that Town, the Inhabitants, joined by a few Troops, and commanded by Major Campbell, sallied out and met them about two Miles from the Town; when, after a pretty smart Engagement, the Rebels were defeated and fled, with the Loss of about 15 or 16 killed, and between 30 and 40 made Prisoners; among the latter was one Ethan Allen, styling himself Colonel, and who commanded the Party.

In this Action Major Carden, heretofore an Officer of the Royal American Regiment, was mortally wounded, and died soon after. Mr. Alexander Paterson, a Merchant of Montreal, was also dangerously wounded, and four or five Soldiers and Canadians were killed and wounded.

Stockholm, October 13. The following contains the Substance of his Swedish Majesty's Ordinance, declaring Marstrand a Free Port, dated Ekolsund, August 15, 1775.

THE Preamble contains Expressions of the King's earnest Desire to promote the Trade and Navigation of his Subjects. It refers at the same Time to an Ordinance published in the Year 1667, and to which, further Extent and Improvement has occasionally been given: In Consequence of it, all Staple Towns of the Kingdom possess a Right, under certain Restrictions, of forming Magazines of various Merchandize, without paying Duties; provided that they are imported from the first Hand, and in Swedish Vessels. But in Order to give a more free Course to Commerce and Navigation, it is thought adviseable to establish a Free Port, where Foreigners as well as Swedes may, without Restriction, carry on a general Trade; and no Spot in the Kingdom has been judged more proper than the Staple-Town of Marstrand, both on account of its large and secure Port, of its favorable Situation for all Vessels bound to the North Sea and Baltick, or coming from thence, and of the Facility with which it can be defended.

On these, and on other weighty Considerations, as well as on account of the most humble Petition of the Inhabitants, Marstrand is declared a Free, Commercial, and Staple Town, or Porto-Franco, under the following Conditions.

1. All Goods, Foreign or Swedish, whether allowed or prohibited, may be imported to Marstrand by Foreign as well as Swedish Ships, there to be laid up, or re-exported.

2. But all Vessels coming into any Swedish Port from Marstrand are to be considered as coming from a Foreign Port, and are of Course to pay Duties, and to be strictly visited and guarded.

Herrings and other Salt Fish are excepted, when Proof is given that they have been taken and cured by Inhabitants of Marstrand, or bought from Swedish Fishermen, or sent in Swedish Vessels to other Ports of the Kingdom; but they are obliged to pay (over and above the same Duty as is laid on Herrings and other Salt Fish taken by the Swedes) for every Tun of Fish One Third of the Duties payable at other Swedish Towns

Towns on every Tun of Portugueſe Salt; and this laſt Duty muſt be paid on every Tun of Salt Fiſh exported from Marſtrand to Foreign Ports.

3. All Swediſh Productions and manufactured Goods bound to Marſtrand are to pay the ſame Duties as when exported to a Foreign Port.

4. All Goods laid up at Marſtrand are to pay One Half per Cent. and when exported from thence One Quarter per Cent. Recognition; half of this Sum becoming the Property of the Crown, and the other half of the City. On the other Hand, Swediſh Productions exported from Marſtrand in Foreign Veſſels are to pay the Duties impoſed by by the General Tariff on exported Goods.

5. All Foreigners, whatever Religion they may profeſs, are allowed to ſettle at Marſtrand, there to enjoy, together with their Children and Poſterity, the free Exerciſe of their Religion, and to trade, and purſue their Callings, in whatever Manner they may think proper, without being ſubject to Formalities, Corporation, &c. of any Kind ſoever.

6. All Inhabitants of Marſtrand, without Diſtinction, Swedes or Foreigners, are to be free from all perſonal Contributions; but in Lieu of them, they are to pay reaſonable Taxes for the Conſumption of Proviſions, and an Equivalent to the Crown and City for what the Inhabitants would otherwiſe be rated at according to the Ordinances.

7. Every Foreigner, who buys or builds a Houſe at Marſtrand of the Value of One Thouſand Rixdollars or above, after having poſſeſſed it two Years, is to be regarded as a naturalized Swediſh Subject, and to enjoy the Privileges of ſuch.

8. Every Foreigner who ſettles at Marſtrand is permitted to quit it whenever he pleaſes, without paying any of the Taxes which in ſuch Caſes are payable.

9. All Foreigners and Swedes who take Refuge at Marſtrand, on Account of Debts or ſuch Offences which do not intereſt their Honour or Life, (every Crime againſt the State excepted) ſhall enjoy perfect Security as long as they remain there, in ſuch Manner that they neither ſhall be delivered up on Reclamation, nor brought to Juſtice, nor put in Priſon, nor have their Properties ſeized. However, thoſe who may be or have been condemned to Confinement in the Fortreſs of Carlſten, for a longer or ſhorter Time, and thoſe who find means to eſcape from thence to Marſtrand, are excepted.

10. The Town is allowed to eſtabliſh a Fund, by Way of Subſcription, in order to erect Buildings and other Works neceſſary for a Porto Franco; but ſhall lie under an Obligation to the Subſcribers to repay to them that Loan out of the common Revenue of the Port, and of thoſe Sums which the Town raiſes by Way of Recognition.

Stockholm, October 13. His Swediſh Majeſty returned laſt Week to Grypſholm from Carlſcrona, where he laid, with great Ceremony, the firſt Stone of a new Dock.

Dreſden, October 18. On Sunday Morning laſt, at Eleven o'Clock, the States of Saxony met, on the Opening of the Diet, in the Palace, where the Elector received them in the uſual Form. The Day was obſerved in Great Gala, and about 400 of the States, Nobility, and Magiſtrates dined, at Four different Tables, with the Elector at Court; and the Evening was concluded with a very grand and brilliant Drawing-Room.

A General Quarterly Meeting of the Truſtees for Repairing and Amending the Turnpike Roads in the Counties of Surry and Suſſex is appointed to be held at the Three Tuns Tavern, St. Margaret's Hill, Southwark, on Thurſday the 16th of November, 1775, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, to chooſe Truſtees in the Room of thoſe who are dead, removed, or refuſe to act; and upon other Affairs relating to the Truſt.
